AM. BROKE UP.

"Why don't you go west?" demanded the man after telling a tramp that he had no small change and could not respond to his appeal for aid.

"I've been out there."

"Why didn't you stay?"

"Cause I lost my all."

"What all did you have?"

"Stranger said the old man, as he leaned back and wiped his forehead,

"I went to Illinois with $8,000 in cash. I went into the business of raising frogs for the market. There was every show that I could make

$10,000 the first year when a climax knocked me plumb in the center. all in one night."

"What was it?"

"I had 20,000 frogs on my farm, and every damned jumper got up and jumped over on another man's land."

"They did?"

"Did for a fact, and as I hadn't branded a single one of them, I couldn't identify my property. That's what broke me all up, and I've come east to see about getting up a machine to scratch a hog's back—something that will permit the hog to scratch himself.

If you can spare me ten cents to help me—

He got it without further explanations.

The Sonoma, Cal., grape growers are just now busily engaged picking their grapes. The yield is unusually small—perhaps half a crop—caused by late spring frosts. Many are offering $15 per ton for Mission grapes, while the Zinfandel, from which the fine claret is made, will bring about twice that sum. Some fancy table grapes bring $35 per ton.

It is reported in Los Angeles that $21,000 in gold dust has been washed out in the past three days in recently discovered placers near the head of the San Gabriel canyon. The placers are located in the old bed of the San Gabriel river.

If you would rheumatism foil,

Provide, in time, St. Jacobs Oil.

CURIOSITIES OF POPULATION.

Of the 50,000,000 of people in the United States, according to the last census, only 6,679,943 were foreign born. There are enumerated 6,632,549 colored people. These items, says the San Francisco Bulletin, make very near a numerical match. Those who think the country is overrun with foreigners, or is likely to be, will do well to study the census returns. Six million is fifty million! And the children of these foreigners all becoming Americans as fast as they are educated or grown up! It is an interesting fact that the majority of the children of foreigners in San Francisco, or those who were foreign born, have a greater pride in being Americans than those of any other class. They frequently refuse to go in processions made up of foreigners—German, Italian, French and others—declaring with great emphasis that they are Americans. Although foreign immigration to this country was never greater than now, yet the increase of the native population is so rapid that the proportion of foreigners to natives will not be readily changed for some time to come.

While there is a part of this foreign element which maintains its distinct character, (the most striking fact is that all the children, or nearly all, are native as much by education and choice as by birth. The Italian, French, German, and so on, cannot be distinguished in the second generation. The fusion is constantly going on. Among the more potential influences is that of the public schools. Children who learn English cease to be foreigners. They are proud of their country and do not wish to be associated with any other. The Germans in the last census were 1,996,743. Ireland was represented by 1,864,571. British America was represented by 717,084—a fact which confirms the theory that there is a constant immigration from the Dominion of Canada to the United States. Norway and Sweden have about 375,000. The present rate of immigration will furnish from 800,000 to 1,000,000 immigrants annually—the smaller estimate being, perhaps, nearer the mark. The countries which have heretofore furnished the largest immigration are now the sources of the largest currents flowing into the country.

JEWETT ADAMS.

The Carson Tribune says of Jewett Adams: "He has for eight years drawn the milk of the State as he would from one of his numerous herds and used it for his own particular purposes, and is now spending the coin dragged from the coffers of the State, in endeavoring to secure his election. We say that Jewett Adams is not capable, educationally or otherwise, for the position of Governor of a sovereign State, and never has been for the office he has occupied for eight years, and the Republican who would support him for the office he seeks is, in fact, a traitor to himself, his family, and the best interests of the State."

The Appeal remarks: "His (Adams) ambition seems to be not mainly for honor, but emoluments, not for station, but for cash, and whether pulled out of the State Treasury or elsewhere, it is all one to him. He simply wants the leading men of the party to get down on their hands and knees while he makes a sidewalk of their backs. How do such men as General Kittrell, D. E. McCarthy, Colonel Ellis, Matt Canavan, Harry Day, and a dozen others who might be mentioned, like the weight of this man's heel on their shoulders?"

The Eureka Leader says Congressman Cassidy and Senator Fair have traded a good deal on the Indian war claims, and the former has posed as the man who would bring the coin to Nevada. But now comes the State agent and gives the credit to Governor Kinkaid. This is too vexatious, especially when votes are needed, to reject a Democratic Congressman.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

Press Dispatches to EVENING GAZETTE.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

Stoneman's Resignation.
New York, September 28. A Washington special says one of the first acts of General Sherman yesterday as acting Secretary of War was to sign an acceptance of the resignation of General George Stoneman as Colonel on the retired list of the army. General Stoneman is Democratic candidate for Governor of California, and is a man of wealth. He is largely engaged in agricultural enterprises and has an income of $8,000 or $9,000 a year. He can therefore afford to relinquish $3,300 which he receives as a retired Colonel, but such an act is unprecedented. General Stoneman graduated from the Military Academy in 1846 and has been an officer of the army continuously to the present time. At the outbreak of the war he was a Major in the First Cavalry. He became Brigadier General of volunteers in August 1861 and Major General the following year. He served with distinction as a general officer during the rebellion and at the close of the war became Colonel of the 21st Infantry. He was retired on account of disability in 1871.

Political Chicanery.
New York, September 28. It has been ascertained that Frederick Tomkins, a member of the last Republican State Committee, was represented at the committee meeting at Saratoga, September 20, by Ira M. Hodges, who had no authority to act for Tomkins. Following is an extract from a letter written by Tomkins: "Concerning the matter as to what authority Hodges may have shown the committee, or what particular trick he adopted to induce it to allow him to misrepresent me on that occasion, I have not yet learned. Perhaps he also may have had one of those administration telegrams, which I fear will prove costly dispatches for Secretary Folger."

Frightened Assassins.
New York, September 27. The Ford brothers, slayers of Jesse James, are on exhibition in Brooklyn, and it is said they were badly frightened last night by the appearance of a woman closely veiled, whom they ascribed was the wife of Frank James, and who they say has threatened to take their lives when they are not expecting the catastrophe. The woman, after glancing around the place, entered a carriage and was driven rapidly away.

Unwakened Adrift.
MEERCK, Pa., September 28. Five expert burglars and cracksmen, in jail for robbing the express office at Greenville, have escaped. They suddenly seized and bound the guard, gagged him and put him in a cell, forced other prisoners into cells with revolvers, and seized the turnkey as he entered and locked him in a cell. They then took the keys from him, passed out, bound and gagged the sheriff and his wife and fled.

Two Bloody Tugboats.
NEW ORLEANS, September 28. This morning Melissa Powers and Addie Johnson, young women, fought with butcher-knives about a young man who had been paying attention to both women, frightfully cutting their faces and all parts of their bodies. Melissa Powers received a stab wound in the breast from which she died almost instantly. Addie Johnson is in a critical condition.

The Jeannette Expedition.
WASHINGTON, September 28. Secretary Chandler had an interview of some length this morning with Engineer Melville, Lieutenant Danenhower and Niderman. All relics and records of the Jeannette expedition that have been in the custody of Melville were formally turned over. The investigation concerning the Jeannette will begin October 5.

He Protected His Home.
CHICAGO, September 28. Wm. Dyniewicz, editor of a Polish paper, surrendered himself to the authorities yesterday morning, saying that he had just killed a man. His story is that on rising and going out to his front yard he was attacked by a tramp with a club, and who followed him into the house and struck his wife and daughter; that in self-defense he went and got a revolver and shot the tramp in the breast, killing him instantly.

A Street-Car Strike.
CHICAGO, September 28. The conductors and drivers employed by the North Division Street Railway Company struck this morning at 10 o'clock and all cars on that division stopped. The trouble is not one of wages, but hours. A short time ago the company employed a new Superintendent, who, as the men claim, increased their hours of labor unreasonably.

Not Yet Reconstructed.
CHARLESTON, S. C., September 28. A Lancaster special says: At a political meeting yesterday a row began between a white man and a negro, and some indiscriminate pistol shooting was done, but only one was hurt. Soon after a posse of negroes rode up and a general row resulted, in which four colored men were killed and a large number wounded.

Death of a Soldier Journalist.

JERSEY CITY, September 28. Robert S. Ferguson, journalist, died yesterday. He was for some time an officer in the Fourteenth United States Infantry, but resigned the commission upon the loss of his wife and child in the burning of officers' quarters at a post in Wyoming.

Death of an Old Congressman.

ADRIAN, Mich., September 27. The Hon. Fernando C. Beaman, member of Congress for the First District of this State for five successive terms, died here this afternoon, aged 68.

Temperance in Massachusetts.

BOSTON, September 28. A convention of temperance organizations of this State in the interest of a constitutional prohibitory movement, was held to-day. Rev. Julius S. Seeley, President, made an address on the necessity of prohibition.

A Grand Haul.

CINCINNATI, September 28. About $12,000 worth of diamonds and valuable jewelry were stolen at the Exposition building this morning from the exhibit.

FOREIGN TELEGRAPH.

Egypt Not Quiet Yet.

CAIRO, September 28. Contrary to rumors, General Waseley will not leave here for a fortnight, nor until questions awaiting the situation in connection with the court martial, the withdrawal of British troops and reorganization are settled. There have been riots in several towns in upper Egypt owing to efforts of officials to enforce demonstrations of loyalty to the Khedive. Flags and devices have been torn down by mobs and Christians insulted and maltreated.

ALEXANDRIA, September 28. It is stated that two companies have been ordered to Tanta. The Egyptian government has possession of a telegram from Prince Ibrahim to Arabi Pasha, congratulating him upon a supposed Egyptian victory at Kasassin, and hoping that on the next feast of Bairim Englishmen would be sacrificed instead of sheep.

A Rumor from Russia.

LONDON, September 28. Vienna newspapers publish a story in effect that the Emperor and Empress of Russia were secretly crowned during their recent visit to Moscow. If the Emperor survives till the public coronation, the secret one will be considered void. In the event of his death it will be made public, so as to avoid any difficulty in proclaiming the Czarowitch Alexander the lawful successor.

The Irish Leaders.

LONDON, September 28. It is understood that Davitt and Dillon have explicitly denied that any difference exists between the latter and Parnell. Dillon resigns solely because of ill health. There are hopes that he may be able to resume his duties after an absence of a year.

An Irish Outrage.

DUBLIN, September 28. A farmer named Hickey, in Tipperary county, has been murdered for paying rent in violation of the order of the local Land League and for assisting in the defense of some men employed in gathering crops on the farm of an evicted tenant.

WESTERN TELEGRAMS.

STOCKTON, September 27. George A. Hyde, a printer in the Independent office, committed suicide to-day by taking laudanum. Cause, financial troubles and general despondency.

PERSONALS.

A. G. Ward of Stockton is registered at the Palace.

Corporal Hall of Fort Bidwell is at the Palace, heading for San Francisco.

Henry Dealy, a mining expert from Chicago, is viewing the country about here.

E. Black Ryan, attorney for the C. P., San Francisco, came up this morning.

Ed. Rice, once a merchant at Reno, arrived from Susanville yesterday, to remain until after the Fair.

Rev. J. D. Hammond, Carson, came down last evening to attend the Methodist Conference now in session in this city.

Mrs. Julia Prescott has returned from San Francisco with a splendid stock of millinery goods. Read 50 cent ad.

Abel Wood and son left here to-day laden with merchandise for Ayer & Lowell of Fort Bidwell, Modoc county, Cal.

A. M. Worthing, a former business man of Reno, put in an appearance yesterday, to hold forth here during the Fair.

L. Rosenwald, postmaster at Lundy, Mono county, Cal., and member of the firm of Rosenwald, Coblenz & Co., was in town last night.

Antone Dragovich, one of the chief owners of the Roma-Union mine at Pyramid, is in town on his way to the mine from San Francisco.

R. P. M. Greeley will come down on Friday evening and will bear the cross for Assemblyman, if desirable to the greatest number of delegates.

A. A. Travis is in town from Wadsworth, where his teams are engaged in grading for the railroad. He will return to-morrow to stir up his mules.

N. B. Hunnewell, a lumber man of Mono, Cal., and one of the Supervisors of that county, is at the Lake House, preparing to do the grand during the Fair.

W. D. Epperson and wife are at the Palace. "Epp," as he is familiarly called, will locate again in Reno, and branch out in all directions for business this winter.

Rev. C. McKelvey, formerly of the Methodist church here, has been transferred by the California Conference just closed at Oakland, to Kingsley church, Sacramento.

N. Travis and wife, with several friends, will start for Washington Territory to-morrow, to look for agricultural locations. They will be amply provided with conveyances.

B. N. Curtis, one of the Antelope millwrights, having completed his work there, has come to town again, and will to-morrow morning start for old Vermont to pay a visit to relatives there.

Charley Youngworth, formerly a restaurant man on the Comstock, arrived here from Denver last night, and after greeting a few friends started to work his way west on a cattle train.

Andy Allen of Bridgeport is at the Lake House. He has an interest in a fast mare at the race track and is Ben Miller's father-in-law. There is, therefore, no reason why he should not be supremely happy.

Jim Dogherty is in town again after an absence of some months. He was foreman for Fox of Gold Hill for some years, and is now boss bull-walloper for Ward Bros. of Granite Creek. It is said he can catch a mouse with a lasso.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

A Conductor Crushed to Death on the Railroad.

To-day about 12 o'clock a freight conductor named Ed. Henry was coupling cars at the depot, and after forming a connection caught his right foot in a frog in the track and was unable to extricate it before the train started. He instantly realized his danger and attempted to throw his body clear of the rails, but was struck so as to force him under the wheels, which passed over his stomach, crushing him fatally, besides breaking his legs. It required the efforts of two strong men to pull his foot from the frog. He was immediately picked up and taken to the C. P. baggage room, where he expired in a few minutes. Henry was about 28 years of age, and was raised in this vicinity, Truckee being his home. Most of the young men about Reno were well acquainted with him. His father is in Washington Territory.

Immigration.

There arrived at the Golden Eagle Hotel last evening, en route for Surprise valley direct from Iowa, sixteen emigrants, namely: Abner Hanks, wife and five children; Mrs. Sarah Drew and four children; Samuel Utterback, Miss Lavina Utterback, Robert Pollack and Seawell Bell. Friends are to meet them here with teams to transport to the land of their choice.

An Industrious Canner.

Steve Conner during the late current season made from currants grown on his nursery farm in Reno 2,000 gallons of very fine vinegar.

THE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.

The Board Sustain Assessor Longley in His Assessments on Railroads.

The Board of Commissioners met at 10 o'clock this morning as a Board of Equalization. Present—Frey and Kinney. E. Black Ryan, attorney for the C. P. R. R., appeared on behalf of that company, and asked that the assessment on the road-bed be reduced from $18,000 to $10,000 per mile, and the sidings from $8,000 to $5,000 per mile, and the assessment on rolling stock from $96,580 to $84,495. Mr. Ryan did not object to the assessment on stations, buildings and lands, believing that the Assessor had set a fair valuation on that property. O. A. Grow, auditor of the motive and machinery department of the C. P. R. R., was sworn and gave testimony tending to show the value of the rolling stock. Mr. Grow said his company were using 52 locomotives in this State which the company valued at $5,000 each, and Mr. Ryan asked that the assessment on each be reduced from $8,000 to $5,000. Mr. Grow said the average age of the engines in the State was 15 years and that $5,000 was a fair valuation. Mr. Ryan (sworn) stated that $5,000 per mile was a big valuation on side-tracks, as the sidings were constructed of refuse iron and ties from the main line, and that in many instances the grades were general, and a part of the same embankments. Assessor Longley (sworn) said that he had assessed the V. & T. main line at $10,000. His reasons for assessing the track of one company at $10,000 and the other at $18,000 he said were, that the business of the V. & T. had greatly decreased in the past two years, while business on the C. P. had been steadily increasing, and that the main element was that the C. P. was paying much larger dividends on the money invested than the local road, and that he considered the investment on the C. P. much better than that of the V. & T. at the relative assessed value per mile. District Attorney Rankin asked that, as Mr. Ryan had offered no material evidence showing why the assessment should be reduced, that the assessor's valuation stand. On motion it was ordered that the Assessor be sustained and the assessment stand as returned.

JOTTINGS.

Campaign lies have begun to make their rounds.

A large lot of cattle went west on last night's freight train.

Last night's express for the west was half an hour late—hot box and heavy train.

Billiard chalk at Nasby's. Thermometer: 7, 9, 11, 1, 3—54, 63, 68, 70, 72.

An insurance adjuster is on his way to Susanville to attend to business relating to the recent fire.

A lie will travel a thousand times faster than the truth—particularly a political lie about a Reno candidate.

A considerable lot of bullion came in last night from Bodie and Belleville. Bodie never shirks her weekly output.

There are enough business houses in Reno for a town twice as large, therefore patronize only those who advertise.

Jim Doherty with a corps of assistants drove in 490 head of cattle yesterday from Ward Bros. range at Granite Creek.

The Arcade has a flock of big turkeys, with which to stuff customers. They were raised in this county, and, for size, are curiosities.

Captain Moger has ordered an out-of-door drill of the Reno Guard to-night, and every member must be present in full uniform; he will accept no excuse.

I. Barnett proposes to sell goods lower during Fair week than ever before. Visitors will find it to their advantage to call at his dry goods emporium and examine his stock and prices.

Tim O'Keefe and Jim Taylor had a lively scrimmage on the Plaza this morning. First one was on top and then the other. Taylor hit O'Keefe in the eye, and the latter kicked Taylor in the hash-pond. They still live.

Reno seems to be a Mecca for tramps. All roads lead to it. If they only had sense enough to go in large bands and take a few hoodlums with them, they would be called gypsies and thought romantic.

One Year at Hard Labor.

Dan McCarty, alias Grizzly Dan, was taken before Judge King this morning and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary at hard labor, for housebreaking. When asked if he had anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced, he said: "Yer Honor, I was an honest man once, but since my wife and children were murdered at Mountain Meadows massacre I have been an outcast and wanderer. I have served my country in two wars. I fit for the stars and stripes in the Mexican war and the war of the rebellion, and the only wrong act I have been guilty of was finding fault with the jail grub. While in jail Humphries told me to wash a towel and I refused, when he locked me up and fed me on cold potatoes, bread and water." Dan shed tears enough to float the Three Brothers, but they had no effect on the hard-hearted Court. Mr. McCarty was taken to Carson on the noon train and given over to Warden Hayward.

JACK CAMPBELL'S MURDERER.

How His Neck Was Saved by a Cunning Constable.

Constable Shipper of Sierraville certainly deserves a great deal of credit for the manner in which he managed to elude the crowd that was hunting for Stubbs, the murderer of Jack Campbell, and lodge his prisoner in jail. As soon as Mr. Shipper heard where Stubbs was hiding he immediately set about to divert the hunters from the right place, acting as their leader in searching the town. He made arrangements to have a team meet him at a certain point at 7 o'clock in the evening to take Stubbs to Downieville. Owing to a horse getting away, the team failed to arrive on time, and from 7 until 10 o'clock the Constable and Fred Perry were out in the brush waiting for the conveyance to come. The night was dark, a cold rain was falling, and the surrounding country was full of infuriated men, intent on lynching Stubbs if he could be found. It was indeed a perilous position. The Constable was stationed near the roadside, while Perry and the prisoner were a short distance back in the brush, when suddenly a half-drunken man rode up and instantly leveled a double-barreled shot-gun on the Constable. Shipper quickly explained who and what he was, and the man started on again, but by some mischance his gun was accidentally discharged. The noise of the report was liable to bring the pursuers to that vicinity, and if found all might suffer from their wrath. Nothing remained for them to do but to get away as fast as possible, so they started out across lots, through the dark and rain, liable to be shot at any moment, until they arrived at Perry's, where they procured a conveyance and got safely to Downieville. Altogether it was an undertaking full of danger, and Mr. Shipper is entitled to great credit for the pluck and skill he displayed in carrying it out.

Bishop Hurst.

Bishop J. F. Hurst, D. D., the presiding officer of the Methodist Conference now in session in Reno, arrived by this morning's train from Oakland where he has been in attendance upon the California Conference. The Bishop is a gentleman of large experience and wide culture. Born in 1834 in Maryland, he graduated at Dickinson College in 1853. After his graduation he studied theology in Germany at Halle and Hidelberg, and after his return to the United States, took pastoral work in New Jersey. In 1866 he took the theological department of the Methodist Institute at Bremen, Germany, and for several years gave much time to travel. In 1878 he was elected President of Drew Theological Seminary, and there distinguished himself not only as a teacher but as a financier, in lifting the seminary from its embarrassment. In 1880 he was elected to his present position of Bishop by what was practically a unanimous vote of the General Conference. Bishop Hurst has been quite a voluminous writer, having published, among other works, a "History of Rationalism" (1865), "Life in Fatherland" (1874), a translation of Hagenbach's "History of the Church in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries" (two volumes—1889), Van Oosterzee's "Lectures on Defense of St. John's Gospel" (1869), Lange's "Commentary on Romans." The Bishop is on his way East, after a most complete and thorough visitation of the entire Pacific coast. He is most welcome to the hospitality of our mountain town.

Our Methodist Brethren.

The Nevada Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church commenced its eighteenth annual session at the Methodist church in Reno this morning at 9 o'clock. Bishop Hurst conducted the opening devotional services. Warren Nims was elected Secretary, and W. G. Simpson and Lott Ewing assistants. Committees were appointed upon the following subjects: Missions, Temperance, Public Worship, Sunday Schools, Bible Cause, Education, Sabbath Observance, and Memoirs. It was announced that Rev. Fred Porter had been transferred from Chicago to this conference. The names of all the preachers were called and they represented their work. Upon motion the conference adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9:30. The following named preachers are in attendance: W. C. Gray, J. T. Ladd, G. Hinkle, L. Ewing, J. H. Pendleton, F. M. Willis, F. M. Warrington, Warren Nims, J. H. DeLaMatry, George DeLaMatry, M. Pratt, N. G. Luke, O. L. Barstow, Wayne Carver, J. D. Hammond, George Jennings, A. J. Kirkbride. All the preachers are in attendance except the Rev. Messrs. Porter and James of the Base Range.

The "Boss" Comet.

This celestial visitor makes a great display in the early morning, and warms its tail in the rays of the morning sun with seeming comfort. Its streaming appendage grows larger every day, and curls more and more. Get up at 4 A. M. and see it.

Cattle Shipped.

Nearly 400 head of prime beef cattle went through Reno last night, for San Francisco, shipped by M. Koerber, sperger of Paradise. There were 18 car-loads.

A SNAKE IN CAMP.

Louis Dean's Hair Rope That Scared a Camp Into Fits.

During Herr Dean's recent trip to the Fish Springs country in search of fat cattle he undertook to teach his vaqueros how to make a hair rope, such as the Mexicans call a meacate, which is used in handling horses, because it is, when properly "laid," extremely pliable and not liable to get kinky. He ravished the tail of every steer in a large band to obtain material, and when he had collected a sufficient quantity, the work of twisting the stuff into shape was begun. All hands grinned when the operation commenced—Louis smiled because he thought he knew all about it, and the vaqueros snickered because they imagined that nobody knew anything about it but themselves. Louis twisted and twisted until he spun out a long rope, and the longer it grew the more peculiarities it developed, until the vagaries of the rope were quite astonishing. The thing writhed and squirmed into kinks and knots like an anaconda with the belly-ache, thrashing about among the men until they fled in dismay, fully believing that the thing was endowed with life. The rope at last got to be so obstreperous that the vaqueros left it in charge of the camp and sought shelter elsewhere. Next day they managed to cage the reptile, and have brought it to Reno, where it will be on exhibition at the Fair grounds. It is the most remarkable rope ever made, being so kinky that it cannot lie still a moment. Many believe it to be really alive, and that by some hocus pocus on the part of Dean he had imparted vitality to the hair used in constructing it. Everybody has heard that a horsehair will turn into a snake after a certain time. Maybe this is an instance of the kind on a large scale.

Succoth, or the Feast of Booths.

This month is the holy season of the Hebrews. It begins with the new year and ends with the Succoth, lasting seven days, and with the eighth day as the special feast of conclusion, or Shemini Azereth. Last evening began the feast of Booths, also called Tabernacles; so called from the Mosaic injunction (Leviticus xxiii.) to dwell seven days in booths, in remembrance of the exodus from Egypt, where the Israelites had to dwell in booth or tents. It is commemorative of God's special protection towards his people. Another biblical command (Leviticus xxiii. 40), "to take the fruit of the magnificent tree, i. e. the ethrog or citron, a palm branch or lulaf, and a twig of the willow and the myrtle, to rejoice before God," gives it the character of a harvest festival, whence it is also called Oog haesef.

Escaped From the Asylum.

An inmate of the asylum, known as "Begod John," escaped from the asylum last Sunday afternoon. The last heard of him was at Brown's station on the Central Pacific.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

RESOLVED, That the honor and glory of the Republic, its continued peace, prosperity and progress will be best served by the perpetuation and continued success of the Republican party. We declare our fidelity to its principles as expressed in the Chicago platform of 1860, and as further embodied in its great history from its organization to the present time.
RESOLVED, That in the tragic death of President Garfield the country has suffered a deplorable loss, and the Republican party mourns for one who consecrated a noble and heroic life to the vindication of its great purposes.
RESOLVED, That we have faith in the prudent and sagacious administration of President Arthur and believe it will result in promoting the best interests of the country.
RESOLVED, That the presence in our midst of a servile race of aliens, incapable of assimilating with our institutions, is a perpetual menace to all classes of society. The relief of the common school and the passage of a law excluding the Chinese by a Republican Congress and approved by a Republican President is a genuine cause of satisfaction. We are in favor of strenuously enforcing the provisions of said law, and we pledge the Republican party to labor now and hereafter to secure such further legislation as will permanently exclude the Chinese.
RESOLVED, That we recognize the paramount importance of maintaining unimpaired the free public school system of the State. We shall defend it against sectarian, political or other improper influences, and we favor such further legislation as the condition and wants of the common school of the State may require. As free institutions they should be so conducted as to satisfy poor and rich alike, and upon this principle we urge the adoption of some system by which the same shall furnish the text books at the lowest possible figure.
RESOLVED, That owing to the remote portion of Nevada from the sea-board and the entire absence of navigable water, and from commercial centers, we demand from Congress such economic and effective legislation as may place our people on terms of equality in respect to transportation charges with communities specially favored by railroad monopolies.
RESOLVED, That we pledge the Republican party of Nevada to such a course of enlightened legislation as will extend to railroad and other corporations doing business in this State the same protection and the same rights before the law as is accorded to individuals—no more and no less. And further, that the Republican party favors and demands that the hands of the State Legislature legislation regulating and equalizing interests and fares on all railroads within this State.
RESOLVED, That we are in favor of the Government of the United States conducting a postal telegraph service, and operating the same in connection with the Postoffice Department.
RESOLVED, That the coinage of silver should be placed upon the same basis as that of gold, and we invoke early Congressional legislation to that end.
RESOLVED, That it is the duty of the Legislature to enact such laws as will result in the purification of the jury box and better protect the administration of justice.
RESOLVED, That it is the duty of the next Legislature to pass such laws as shall reduce the expenses of State and county governments to the lowest possible limits consistent with the requirements of the public service.
RESOLVED, That the earnest attention of Congress and the State Legislature is directed to the subject of codifying the laws relating to the location and working of mineral lands to the end that legitimate prospecting and the development of our chief source of wealth may best be promoted.
RESOLVED, That the appropriation by a Republican Congress for the payment of pensions to invalid Union soldiers and to the veterans of the Mexican war is the discharge of a debt of honor and law—a generous remembrance of our country's defenders in its supreme hour of peril.
RESOLVED, That in the judgment of this convention the Legislature, when next convened, should make the necessary provisions for a convention to revise the entire constitution of the State; that in providing for such convention well-guarded re-trictions should be made, defining the number of delegates, their compensation, and fixing the duration of its session; that we believe such a convention is imperatively demanded by the urgent necessities of the times, and we demand of the Legislature for the following cogent reasons: First—to change the fundamental law so as to secure as nearly as may be the equal and uniform taxation on all property consolidated therein, so as to regulate and render equal and just all the rates of passage and freight upon all railroads doing business in this State; and second—to amend our constitution so as to secure and not overthrown, and third—to secure the reduction of the salary of the State to the minimum by discharging all unnecessary officers and employees, reducing more speedily and economically the collection of public revenue, and the general administration of justice.
